

Oxfordshire Past 2017

Oxfordshire Past 2017 will be held on Saturday 17 June at The Barns Centre, Church Road, Thame from 10.00 a.m. to 4.00 p.m. This enjoyable annual event in the Oxfordshire calendar is for anyone interested in history, buildings and archaeology. Stalls and exhibits will be open throughout the day.

There is some parking at the Centre, and a public car park at Cattlemarket, North Street, 9 minutes' walk from the Centre. The Arriva 280 bus from Oxford to Aylesbury runs every 20 minutes, and the Thame Museum stop is close to Church Road.

Attendance at Oxfordshire Past costs £7 and must be booked in advance. This includes tea/coffee but not lunch. The town centre is 5 minutes walk away.

Time	Subject	Speaker
10.00	Welcome	Chris Day, OAHS
10.05	Recent Archaeological Work in Oxford City	David Radford
10.35	Thame Wall Paintings Project	Lindsey Weimers
10.55	A Villa Near Banbury	Keith Westcott
11.15	Coffee / tea
11.35	Reflections on County Archaeology in 2016	Susan Lisk
12.05	Oxfordshire Historic Landscape Characterisation	Abi Tompkins
12.30	Lunch break and OAHS AGM
13.45	Current VCH Projects: An Update	Simon Townley
14.15	Thame Remembers	David Bretherton
14.40	Tea / coffee
15.00	Mapping Manning	Mike Heaney
15.25	Building Recording in Oxfordshire 2016/17	David Clark, OBR
15.55	Closing address	Thame Museum Archaeology Group
16.00	Close of Oxfordshire Past 2017 The Thame Museum will be open until 17.00.

To book, please pay online at the website <http://oxfordshirepast.org/> which can be used by both O.A.H.S. members and non-members

OR send a cheque for £7 payable to 'Oxfordshire Architectural and Historical Society' to Jill Hind, 99 Wellington Street, Thame OX9 3BW.

If paying by post, please assume receipt as no acknowledgement will be sent.